THE CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT'S (SOUTH AFRICA) DECLARATION

The following annual financial statements of Lions Clubs International Multiple District 410 Operation Brightsight, as presented on pages 4 to 11, have been independently compiled by a Chartered Accountant (South Africa) [CA(SA)]. Refer to compilation report on page 3.

Use of the CA(SA) designation is governed by the Chartered Accountants Designation (Private) Act, 1993 (Act 67 of 1993), which regulates and permits the use of the CA(SA) designation exclusively by members of The South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA). Use of the designation without SAICA membership is consequently a criminal offence, and misuse is subject to legal action.

SAICA is the premier accountancy body in South Africa and one of the leading chartered accountancy institutes in the world and all members must comply with the Code of Professional Conduct which conforms to the code released by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA). The SAICA code and definitions contained therein are consistent in all material aspects with the International Federation of Accountants' (IFAC) code as well as the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors (IRBA) code.

The following fundamental principles are embodied in the SAICA Code of Professional Conduct and are to be upheld by all CA's(SA) at all times.

- Integrity - a duty to be straightforward and honest in all professional and business relationships.
- Objectivity - a duty to not allow bias, conflict of interest or undue influence of others to override professional or business judgments.
- Professional competence and due care - a duty to maintain professional knowledge and skill at the level required to ensure that a client receives competent professional services based on current developments in practice, legislation and techniques and act diligently and in accordance with applicable technical and professional standards.
- Confidentiality - a duty to respect the confidentiality of information acquired as a result of professional and business relationships and, therefore, not disclose any such information to third parties without proper and specific authority, unless there is a legal or professional right or duty to disclose, nor use the information for the personal advantage of the chartered accountant or third parties.
- Professional behaviour - a duty to comply with relevant laws and regulations and avoid any action that discredits the accountancy profession.

A distinguishing characteristic of CA's(SA) are their responsibilities and duties which extend beyond the needs of individual clients and also includes the public as a whole.

Accordingly, this declaration serves to confirm that the above mentioned financial statements have been prepared by a CA(SA) who has observed and complied with the SAICA Code.

MEMBERS' RESPONSIBILITIES AND APPROVAL

The members are required in terms of the NPO Act, to maintain adequate accounting records and are responsible for the content and integrity financial statements and related financial information included in this report. It is their responsibility to ensure that the financial statements fairly present the state of affairs of the entity as at the end of the financial year and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period then ended, in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities and the requirements of the NPO Act of South Africa.

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities and the requirements of the NPO Act of South Africa and are based upon appropriate accounting policies consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgments and estimates.

The members acknowledge that they are ultimately responsible for the system of internal financial control established by the entity and place considerable emphasis on maintaining a strong control environment. To enable the members to meet these responsibilities, the board sets standards for internal control aimed at reducing the risk of error or loss in a cost-effective manner. The standards include the proper delegation of responsibilities within a clearly defined framework, effective accounting procedures and adequate segregation of duties to ensure an acceptable level of risk. These controls are monitored throughout the entity and all employees are required to maintain the highest ethical standards in ensuring the entity's business is conducted in a manner that in all reasonable circumstances is above reproach. The focus of risk management in the entity is on identifying, assessing, managing and monitoring all known forms of risk. While operating risk cannot be fully eliminated, the entity endeavours to minimise it by ensuring that appropriate infrastructure, controls, systems and ethical behaviour are applied and managed within predetermined procedures and constraints.

The members are of the opinion, based on the information and explanations given by management that the system of internal control provides reasonable assurance that the financial records may be relied on for the preparation of the financial statements. However, any system of internal financial control can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The members have reviewed the cash flow forecast for the year and, in the light of this review and the current financial position, they are satisfied that the entity has access to adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

The financial statements set out on pages 4 to 11, which have been prepared on the going concern basis, were approved by the board on _____ and are signed on its behalf:

1. ACCOUNTING POLICY

The annual financial statements are presented in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards appropriate to the association and are prepared on the historical cost basis. The principal policies are consistent with those applied in the previous year, except where indicated otherwise.

1.1 Long Term Loans Granted

Long term loans are carried at nominal value. Loans to related parties are carried at nominal value and no short term portion is recognised as there is no fixed repayment schedule determined on these loans.

1.2 Trade and Other Receivables

Trade and other receivables are carried at nominal value. An estimate is made for doubtful receivables based on a review of all outstanding amounts at the year-end. Bad debts are written off during the year in which they are identified.

1.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flow, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks and investments in money market instruments, and net of bank overdrafts.

1.4 Trade and Other Payables

Trade and other payables are carried at nominal value.

1.5 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized upon delivery and represents amounts received or receivable for operations in the normal course of business and is stated as net income after discount.

1.6 Interest Received

Interest is accrued on a time-proportion basis, recognising the effective yield on the underlying assets.

1.7 Capital Expenditure

Capital expenses as per council decision all capital assets written off in year of acquisition.

1.8 Funds

Accumulated funds specifically reserved for specific future expenditure.
