Lions International

Hello!

Discover the world's largest service club
organisation in South Africa, eSwatini, Lesotho and Namibia.

We Serve!

Our Legacy ...

Lions International was established in 1917 in the USA to address the post-war plight of society. By 1920, Lions started reaching across borders and expanding globally.

Today, it's the biggest global service organization with more than 1.4m volunteer members in 49,000 clubs in over 200 territories worldwide.

For over 100 years Lions have been meeting humanitarian needs, fostering peace, and promoting international understanding through service initiatives in their Clubs.

Lions in Southern Africa have been serving their communities since 1957.

Lions Global Causes ...

While each Lions club runs its own service projects, there are five global causes of particular interest to Lions:

-  VISION
Support for the many facets of vision impairment
-  DIABETES
Early detection & support for diabetes sufferers
-  HUNGER
Alleviation of hunger & malnutrition globally
-  ENVIRONMENT
Promotion of protection & sustainability of our planet
-  CHILDHOOD CANCER
Support for children & families affected by cancer

Lions have assisted millions of people globally, through our pursuit of service. WE SERVE!

Our Uniqueness ...

Lions Clubs operate and are managed on strict financial principles and 100% of funds raised for a service project, has to be utilised in the community.

Our basis of volunteer membership and Club dues ensure that individuals that join us, are committed to service. For less than the price of a cup of coffee a week, membership is attainable for most people.

Benefits of Joining Lions ...

- Make a difference! Lions are normal people who have chosen to serve others.
- Serve with pride! Lions offer their time and talents to really change lives.
- Leadership development! Hone your leadership skills and take advantage of excellent Lions development programs.
- Develop friendships! Gain an affinity with your club colleagues to more than 1.4 million Lions world wide.
- Build a network! Develop relationships with community leaders, local Lions and Lions around the globe.
- Gain trustworthiness! Gain the respect that comes with membership of a successful global organization with a glittering track record for over a century.
- Global support! Every Lion is supported by a class-leading global organization at every step of their service journey.
